SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Prior to his departure for Cuba on 14 April en route to the Paris Peace Congress, Dionisio Encina, Secretary General of the Mexican Communist Party, announced that he intended to accept an invitation to visit Moscow upon the close of the Congress.
2. Encina's passage from Cuba to France had been arranged for him, but his passage from Mexico to Cuba was a serious problem for the Party members until 11 April when Encina, Diego Rivera, Ladislao Carbajal, and David Alfaro Siqueiros visited Lombardo Toledano. After some discussion, Diego Rivera agreed to furnish the 3000 pesos to get Encina to Cuba, and David Alfaro Siqueiros contributed 1500 pesos to help out the Communist Party during the absence of Encina.
3. Source did not state who would pay the expenses of the prospective visit to Moscow.
